

PRESS RELEASE

Personnel news, White-Collar Crime, Investigation, Compliance ; 12/02/2020

Navacelle promotes Clémentine Duverne and Julie Zorrilla to Partner

Navacelle is delighted to announce that Clémentine Duverne and Julie Zorrilla have been promoted as Partners. “These promotions are in line with Navacelle’s 10-year commitment to excellence in client service and a broader dedication to the profession. The firm’s strengthened leadership will make it a stronger choice for clients looking for reliable advice addressing complex situations.” comments Stéphane de Navacelle, the firm’s founding partner.

Clémentine Duverne joined Navacelle as Counsel in 2019 and became Partner in January 2020. A lawyer in New York (2010) and Paris (2012), she practices corporate litigation, predominantly in the fields of white-collar, internal investigations and compliance. Prior to joining Navacelle, Clémentine worked in the White-collar and Regulatory department of White & Case in which she has gained expertise in complex cross-border financial and criminal matters, notably in corruption and AML/CFT matters. > Read More

Julie Zorrilla joined Navacelle in 2012. As Associate, Counsel and now Partner at Navacelle, she has worked for over seven years on complex cross-border financial and criminal matters with clients and enforcement authorities in the Americas, Asia, Europe and Russia. She assists foreign and national senior executives and corporations in internal investigations, pre-litigation and litigation proceedings, in matters ranging from large-scale corruption, embargo and index manipulation (LIBOR and SSA) to asset recovery, monitorships and assessing compliance programs. > Read More

NAVACELLE

About Navacelle:

Navacelle is a white-collar crime, compliance, regulatory defense and complex litigation firm.

The lawyers are cherry-picked, trained to the highest professional and ethical standards to confidently address the most complex cross-border matters. They work in six languages, over four continents, relying on likewise thinking firms and to compete with the best worldwide.

Navacelle represents clients against multi-jurisdictional criminal prosecutions, civil and administrative enforcement authorities, tackling parallel investigations, criminal judicial cooperation, protection of individuals' rights and handling of evidence. The team's combined experience includes recent landmark corruption (US FCPA, UK BA), embargo, LIBOR/Euribor, market abuses (e.g., insider trading) and tax investigations carried out by several authorities.

Navacelle advises and assists boards, committees and management facing tough calls while setting up and assessing the validity of compliance programs and codes of ethics. In addition to legal liability, the firm advises on issues of conflicts of interests, independence, reporting and transparency to include reputational risk. The lawyers carry out investigations aimed at assessing the appropriateness of systems and controls in place and offer training tailored to clients' needs.

Navacelle provides sophisticated thinking in matters involving high-risk, high-liability for corporations and individual employees. The lawyers have experience preparing for and assisting clients at custodial interviews by investigators from the French police, the French financial market authority as well as before US and UK authorities and regulators. The firm also works with clients to prepare for trial and be advocates of facts and law with judges and prosecutors up to and during trial. Navacelle lawyers have experience managing complex litigations involving multiple parallel (criminal, civil and commercial) procedures, arbitrations and challenges to same as well as motion fighting in courts throughout France. Navacelle handles arbitrations & international dispute resolutions and carries out tailored solutions to complex situations which can arise out of commercial disputes – whether litigation or arbitration, in cross-border matters.

NAVACELLE

www.navacellelaw.com

60 rue Saint-Lazare, 75009 Paris, France

+33 1 48 78 76 78

Contact : info@navacellelaw.com

navacelle

navacelleavocat